The approach of the U.S.S.R. to these negotiations is well known. I can only reaffirm that: We do not strive to acquire unilateral advantages over the United States, over NATO countries, for military superiority over them; we want termination, and not continuation of the arms race and, therefore, offer a freeze of nuclear arsenals, an end to further deployment of missiles; we want a real and major reduction of the arms stockpiles, and of the development of ever new weapon systems, be it in space or on earth. We would like our partners in the Geneva negotiations to understand the Soviet Union's position and respond in kind. Then agreement will be possible. The peoples of the world would sigh with relief. - From a speech yesterday to the Communist Party Central Committee after being appointed General Secretary.	False		1985-03-13	TX 1-525234

A couple of cents a gallon makes the difference between boom and bankruptcy. That explains why some are so tempted by opportunities to evade state gasoline taxes, which run 18 to 20 cents a gallon. New York may now be losing as much as $200 million a year as a result. Happily, a simple measure awaiting approval by the Legislature could close the widest loophole in the collection system. The term seems to fit Greece's Socialist Prime Minister, Andreas Papandreu, who provokes ominous passions for mean gains. How tempting for the United States to fire back in kind at each outrageous salvo. And how easy to overdo it.	False		1985-03-15	TX 1-522470

But instead of promptly denying review, the Court used six months to argue internally whether to make him pay damages to his adversary. It finally decided no, 5 to 3, but not before Chief Justice Burger delivered a dissent demanding to make an example of Mr. Ginsburg. Four other justices took time to explain why the pursuit of the frivolous was frivolous.	False		1985-03-28	TX 1-541308

Did he shoot them in self-defense or calculated revenge? The debate has disrupted dinners and classrooms and set strangers to arguing on the street. This hasn't been true of any month you can name for the last two years, which is why she kept looking for different - i.e. pleasant - weather. March, however, has not been accommodating. March has been mean. It came in like a lion. The winds have been high, and so have the clouds, and even on the few sunny days there was a bite in the air. The daffodils on the north side of our friend's street are looking good, but the ones on the south are still struggling through dirt. A forsythia bush outside her window has burst only a few buds, and as yet looks more naked than dressed.	False		1985-04-01	TX 1-541298

The base year for prices, for example, is 1967, a golden time when a single dollar was worth three of today's dollars. Now for gardeners in New York, there's a base year for winters: 1985, a golden time for weather. It was unexpected. On Feb. 1 New York's weather page read: "Below normal this year: 84" degrees. On Feb. 10 the cumulative reading was 135 degrees below normal. Then things turned. On Feb. 25 the word "below" disappeared: "Above normal this year: 2." By this week, it was 138 above normal.
